Young America Soccer is a youth recreational soccer program that is made possible by the assistance of 200 to 300 volunteer coaches and officials. These people come from a wide variety of backgrounds. The soccer experience of the volunteers ranges from none to several years in some instances. Soccer experience is not necessary for an individual who would like to be involved with the program. The Recreation Division has prepared both the coaching and officiating manuals for volunteers. In addition, there are several clinics available to assist volunteers with their task. Anyone with a sincere and dedicated interest in working with children in a sports oriented situation should call Kevin Royal at 350.9418.

VOLUNTEER COACHES & OFFICIALS ARE NEEDED
NO EXPERIENCE REQUIRED!
