

Slide 1

Slide 2

At each Council Meeting, we recognize the people, organizations and businesses that make Greeley Great. Tonight it's my turn to announce the recognitions. I'll start with a quote, "If you belittle what you have, it becomes less. If you appreciate what you have, it becomes more." With these announcements we are appreciating the good work of our residents, showing support for their efforts, and encouraging everyone to share the word that Greeley is Great.

Slide 3

Greeley City Attorney Doug Marek has been named Outstanding City Attorney by the Metro City Attorneys Association. Doug has been Greeley's City Attorney for 4 years. Congratulations Doug on this well-deserved recognition.

Slide 4

Greeley police officer Lt. Adam Turk of Greeley's investigations unit was one of 222 law enforcement officers who graduated from the FBI's National Academy Program. The program lasted 11 weeks and focused on advanced communication, leadership, and fitness.

Slide 5

The University of Northern Colorado has been named the top Theatre College in Colorado by Onstage Blog for 2017. UNC has had 25 UNC alumnus appear in 52 Broadway productions, 30 actors have appeared in 41 Off-Broadway productions and many more have worked on stage in national tours, regional theatre, theme parks, cruise ships, made for TV movies, national commercials, and more!

Slide 6

Greeley Police Department Detective Michael Prill has been awarded the Colorado Attorney General's Excellence in Criminal Investigation Award. This is the first annual recognition given under the new program that is now presented by the Attorney General each year to a criminal investigator who has served in an exemplary fashion over the course of their career. Congratulations and thanks to Detective Prill for being part of the Greeley Police Department team serving and protecting Greeley residents for twenty-plus years.

Slide 7

