

Slide 1

Slide 2

At each Council Meeting, we recognize the people, organizations and businesses that make Greeley Great. Tonight it's my turn to announce the recognitions. I'll start with a quote, "If you belittle what you have, it becomes less. If you appreciate what you have, it becomes more." With these announcements we are appreciating the good work of our residents, showing support for their efforts, and encouraging everyone to share the word that Greeley is Great.

Slide 3

For their outstanding volunteer contributions to their local community and several charitable organizations, the American Collegiate Hockey Association has recognized UNC's Club Hockey Team as the 2016-2017 Divisional Community Service Award winner. The Bears earned this recognition by organizing the Bear For A Day event working with youth hockey teams, a Breast Cancer Awareness event, a Military Appreciation event, and various monetary donations to the community.

Slide 4

Greeley resident Dr. Lesley Clark Brooks has been appointed to serve on the Hospital Provider Fee Oversight and Advisory Board by Governor Hickenlooper. The Board works with the Department of Health Care Policy and Financing and the Medical Services Board to develop the hospital provider fee model, and ensure that the Medicaid and Child Health Plan Plus eligibility expansions are implemented as intended.

Slide 5

The Better Business Bureau serving Northern Colorado and greater Wyoming has named The Weld Food Bank a 2017 winner of the annual BBB Torch Award for Ethics.

Slide 6

Northridge student Gabe Martinez has been elected as the 2017-2018 state vice president of public relations for the Colorado Family Career and Community Leaders of America organization. FCCLA is a national, student-run organization that helps students become better leaders and address important societal issues, such as violence prevention, traffic safety, and career exploration.

Slide 7

More accolades for Northern Colorado athletes: Softball pitcher, Jayme (jaye) Reddacliff, earned Pitcher of the Week from the Big Sky Conference. And men's golf celebrated four players awarded All-Big Sky honors, including Colby Welch being named Big Sky Freshman of the Year.

Slide 8

