At each Council Meeting, we recognize the people, organizations and businesses that make Greeley Great. Tonight it's my turn to announce the recognitions. I'll start with a quote "If you belittle what you have, it becomes less. If you appreciate what you have, it becomes more." With these announcements we are appreciating the good work of our residents, showing support for their efforts, and encouraging everyone to share the word that Greeley is Great.

The University of Northern Colorado's Cumbres Teacher Support and Preparation program has been named a 2016 Example of Excellencia for its role in increasing academic opportunities and achievement for Latina and Latino students. Cumbres, which is Spanish for 'peaks', was started in 1996 to prepare students for careers in culturally and linguistically diverse education.

Congratulations to Greeley resident, Stacy Davis, who has been chosen by Governor John Hickenlooper to serve as an expert on the state Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Advisory Council. The council advises the governor and the state Division of Criminal Justice on issues related to juvenile justice, which includes review and approval of the annual Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Plan.
